About RSL Money

How does the RSL benefit from RSL Money?

Every time you use your RSL Money access card, you're helping to promote the RSL brand in the community. What's more, proceeds raised from the RSL Money initiative will go towards the RSL National Office and will help to keep RSL annual membership fees low.

Where does my money go?

When you invest with RSL Money, your funds provide financial assistance to current serving members of the Australian Defence Force through products such as home loans.

Backed by over 50 years experience

RSL Money is operated by Australian Military Bank. Australian Military Bank has been in operation since 1959, is an Authorised Deposit Taking Institution with funds under management in excess of $1 billion and operates in accordance with the Banking Act (1959). Deposits with RSL Money up to $250,000 are covered under the Australian Government Guarantee Scheme.

About our product range

The RSL Money Pension Account

Designed specifically for retirees and those on a Government or superannuation pension, the RSL Money Pension Account allows you to grow your savings without affecting your benefits. RSL Money will contribute 0.20% p.a. of Pension Account balances to RSL National every month. That means, the more you save the more we can give back to the RSL movement.

Features and Benefits

- No monthly account keeping fees
- Interest rebate payable to the RSL National
- RSL Money Visa payWave enabled debit card
